Description:

Top ten things Samantha Madison isnt ready for:10. Spending Thanksgiving at Camp David9. With her boyfriend, the presidents son8. Who appears to want to take their relationship to the Next Level7. Which Sam inadvertently and shockingly announces live on MTV6. While appearing to support the president's dubious policies on families, morals, and yes, sex⁵. Juggling her new after-school job at Potomac Video⁴. Even though she already has a job as teen ambassador to the UN (that she doesn't get paid for)³. Riding the Metro and getting accosted because she's the redheaded girl who saved the president's life, in spite of her new, semi-permanent Midnight Ebony tresses². Experiencing total role reversal with her popular sister Lucy, who for once can't get the guy she wants and the number-one thing Sam isn't ready for?¹. Finding out the hard way that in art class, life drawing means naked people.

Sam draws pictures of famous people with her classmates. She gets busted trying to sell them to girls at school. She also struggles with her German class. She just can't seem to grasp the language. As punishment her parents send her to an art class. After she skips class, she waited in the rain to be picked up... This book is interesting for me to read because it's from 2002. It's amazing how much technology has changed. People were not texting they were IMing. They used land lines. All kinds of outdated technology is being used. It's great!
